Directions to Haviland Hall from Downtown Berkeley BART Station
WALKING DIRECTIONS FROM DOWNTOWN BERKELEY BART TO HAVILAND HALL

See pages 4-5 for maps to assist you.

- When you exit Downtown Berkeley BART station, find the intersection of Shattuck Avenue and Center Street.

- Head up Center Street away from Shattuck Avenue toward Oxford Street and the western edge of campus.

- At the intersection of Oxford and Center, cross the intersection and follow the sidewalk on the right on what is known as “The Crescent” (may not be marked).

- At the “Spring Gateway” or “West Gate” (see below photo), turn right, walking by the booth and up to traffic circle; 2/3\textsuperscript{rd}s of the way around the circle, take a right onto “Wickson Road” (may not be marked). You will walk past large buildings on left and a small creek and fields on right.
At University Drive, veer right across the small wooden bridge on your right; cross Strawberry creek and then turn immediately left onto crosswalk, following the path that runs parallel to the creek through the trees up to Haviland Hall. The reception desk is located at 120 Haviland Hall, and the Social Welfare Library where many public events are held is on the second floor.
Walking Map from Downtown Berkeley BART to Haviland Hall:

See more detailed campus map on p. 5.
Campus Map From Spring Gateway/West Gate to Haviland Hall: