

BERKELEY FAMILY HOUSING

About half of Berkeley's graduate student parents live in university housing at University Village in nearby Albany. Over 900 family housing units are available for student families (undergraduate and graduate), from one-bedroom/one-bath to three-bedroom/two-bath apartments. As wait-lists are common, register your interest as early as possible, even before arriving on campus.

FAMILIES MATTER

A Resource Guide for Graduate Student Parents

About one in ten of Berkeley's graduate population is a student parent. UC Berkeley recognizes that a family-friendly academic culture is essential to the success and well-being of all students, faculty, and staff. The University is committed to supporting policies, programs, and services to help graduate student parents meet their family care obligations while they pursue their academic goals.

This brochure offers an overview of resources to help graduate students balance academic and family responsibilities.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

The Graduate Council of the Academic Senate supports academic accommodations for graduate students with substantial parenting responsibilities, including (when applicable) extension of time for academic milestones.

CHILD CARE

THE EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION PROGRAM (ECEP)

ECEP offers spaces for children (3 months to 5 years) of student parents. A high quality curriculum coupled with experienced and passionate teachers creates a nurturing and supportive environment for UC Berkeley's youngest students. ECEP's goal is to help student parents balance school, work, and family. We reserve a number of spaces for the children of student parents, and provide subsidies to qualified parents. To qualify for a reserved space or subsidy, one parent must be a registered UC Berkeley student. Enrollment is limited and cannot be guaranteed, so apply as early as possible.

EMERGENCY BACK-UP CHILD CARE

Parents who are currently registered UCB students are eligible for up to 60 hours per year of highly-subsidized back-up child care from a leading nationwide provider of care services (on a first-come, first-served basis). This back-up program helps student parents when their regular child care arrangements are unavailable and they need to attend to academic responsibilities on campus, at home, or away.
