

"Your individuality is important, but so is belonging. Recognize the parts of your culture that have shaped your past, and the parts you want to carry with you into the future." - Sol Peralta

This issue: gallery, upcoming events, opportunities, jobs, recommendations

Gallery

Event: Alumni Mixer

Students joined alumni from UC Berkeley's School of Social Welfare and former members from the Latinx/Raza caucus and Sin Fronteras at our first annual mixer.

Upcoming Events

Terapia Solidaria: Narrative Therapy Practice in Solidarity with Latinx Communities:

Thursday, February 21 from 9:00 am - 4:00 pm and Friday, February 22 from 9:00 am - 1:00 pm

Location: California State East Bay Conference Center.

Registration is closed.

Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz's 17th annual Century Proto-Latinx Feminism

Friday, February 22 from 4:00 pm - 6:00 pm

Join the Latinx Research Center for two insightful presentations by Department of Spanish and Portuguese scholars examining feminist and queer heroine's strategies for defying the patriarchy of her day!

Bilingual/Bicultural Job Fair:

Monday, March 4 from 4:00 pm - 5:30 pm

Location: Haviland Commons

Network with professionals in the field and explore the potential career opportunities that are available to you.

MSW Student Panel: Getting Into Grad School:

Monday, April 15 from 4:00 pm - 5:30 pm

Location: Haviland Commons

Hear current graduate students of the Master in Social Welfare program about their experiences with the application process, courses, time management, etc.

Opportunities:

The Latino Social Work Organization (LSWO) is seeking volunteers for the 2019 Latinx Social Work Conference. They are seeking 6 volunteers for April 4th (Thursday) and April 5th (Friday) as greeters, monitors, and support to the registration desk.

If you are interested, please sign up here.

The link for registration to the conference can be found here.

---

Venceremos Brigade will be traveling to practice solidarity with the Cuban People and their struggles through voluntary labor, donations of material aid, relationship building and dialogue. To learn more, visit VB4Cuba.

---

The University of Michigan School of Social Work - Program for Research on Black Americans summer training program is committed to conducting research on the African American and/or Latinx population. Its purpose and emphasis focuses on research skill enhancement, career mentoring, and professional development.

Dates: June 5-7, 2019

Application Deadline: March 11, 2019

---

Recent Job Postings

County of Alameda: Clinical Review Specialist

Legal Services for Children: Social Worker

Florida State University: Post Master's Fellowship

---

Recommendations:

Couple builds bridge to Berkeley for Coachella Valley's brightest, neediest youth

Luisa, a social worker, and Oscar Armijo, a certified public accountant, have been working with low-income and underserved communities by helping academically talented valley youth break the cycle of poverty with an education from UC Berkeley.

---

The Latinx Center of Excellence at Berkeley Social Welfare is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of an award totaling $3,398,332 with 0 percent financed with non-governmental sources. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by HRSA, HHS, or the U.S. Government. For more information, please visit HRSA.gov to promote success among Latinx social work students through enhanced training and educational opportunities in behavioral health."