Restrictions/Exceptions/Notes:

For other UCB Group/Department-organized events (not affiliated with the School of Social Welfare):

All UCB groups must provide the School of Social Welfare with a chartstring, which will be used for cancellations, damages, and/or any services that may accrue from use of the facilities. Submission of a chartstring indicates that the department and its accounting administrator are aware that any forthcoming costs will be recharged to this account. A food permit from Office of Environmental, Health & Safety is required for events where food will be served if the event is open to the general public and/or you will charge admission. For more information: <http://ehs.berkeley.edu/special-event-safe-food-handling-practices>. Please note that there are room rental fees for all groups and department-organized events that are not affiliated with the School of Social Welfare. Space information and fees are listed on page 4.

I acknowledge and understand that this chartstring will be used for payment of room reservation fees, as well as any charges associated with cancellations, damages, and/or any services that may accrue from use of the facilities.
