

Support for Undocumented Students

UC Berkeley's Division of Equity & Inclusion offers confidential advising for undocumented students every Friday from 3 pm - 5pm in 327 Sproul. No appointment needed. In addition to advising, they organize graduate student activities throughout the academic year. If you are interested in being added to the student listserv, please contact Abby M. Rincon, Assistant Dean for Graduate Diversity. Phone: 510-643-7550. Email: arincon@berkeley.edu.

UC Berkeley Undocumented Student Program (USP):

The Haas Dreamer's Resource Center is a community space that offers student professional academic counseling, mental health support, peer support, and opportunities to create learning communities, access to tools and resources such as computer stations and books, and space to study between classes.

The Office for Graduate Diversity (OGD)—closely coordinates with the Undocumented Student Program (USP) and provides graduate students with several resources. Browse through the information they provide regarding UC systemwide resources and information, legal support, funding opportunities, advising, and more.

Additional Resources for Undocumented Students

Applying to Graduate School

<https://mydocumentedlife.org/category/applying-to-grad-school/>

Financial Support

Graduate Student Fellowships and Awards for UC Berkeley prospective and current students: <https://grad.berkeley.edu/financial/fellowships>

Immigrants Rising (formerly Educators for Fair Consideration)

<https://immigrantsrising.org/resources/>

<https://immigrantsrising.org/resource/overview/>

Independent contractor work/stipends:

<https://immigrantsrising.org/resource/working-for-yourself-guide/>

Graduates Reaching a Dream Deferred (GRADD):

<https://undocugradd.wordpress.com/>

<https://www.facebook.com/GRADD.org/>